

The Mar Thoma Congregation, Scotland meets at the Old St Paul's Church, Jeffrey Street, Edinburgh, EH1 1DH.

The Church is located in the city centre of Edinburgh under the North Bridge parallel to Royal Mile.

Directions

The church is only walking distance from all the landmarks given below.

From the Royal Mile, head towards the crossroads of the High Street (Royal Mile) and North Bridge. Slightly down hill on the High Street through an archway (next to the 'Mitre' pub) is Carrubber's Close. Walk down the close, and OSP is at the bottom on your right.

From Princes Street, you can find the church by going along Waverley Bridge (where the main entrance to the train station is).

At the mini roundabout, turn left on to Market Street. You will pass under North Bridge, and OSP is just after that on the right.

From Waverley Station by walk, take the exit towards the Market Street (Opposite side of Princess Street) the Church is hardly fifty feet to left from the exit on the Jeffrey Street.

From St. Andrews Bus Station, come to Princess Street then follow the directions from the Princess Street.

There are bus and train services to Edinburgh from other Scottish cities like Glasgow, Aberdeen, Inverness, Dundee, Stirling, Kirkcaldy, Dunfermline, Perth and St. Andrews. Almost all the cities in England and Ireland are connected to Edinburgh by air, rail and road services.
